

Crawl

TENDER

Crawl back from whence you came
I don't need an ocean in between us
I just wanna know I'm safe
Death is the engine of life
I'm on a road paved with gold
I'm about to find out why I'm so alone

Won't you stay a while? And don't you hide away
I got you slipping from my fingers, day to day, I didn't say
I'll come crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you

I don't wanna wait out
Give me a minute to let it all sink in
I don't even care about
What you did It's about who you did with it
Oh, God, feel so betrayed
I never thought I'd see the day
Hanging on by a thread
Should've been me instead

Won't you stay a while? And don't you hide away
I got you slipping from my fingers, day to day, I didn't say
I'll come crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you

Won't you stay a while? And don't you hide away
I got you slipping from my fingers, day to day, I didn't say
I'll come crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
Crawling back to you
