

Give me something to hold on to
I know you're tired of trying to walk me through
Just how you're feeling
And maybe I can help you with the pain
I know baby you would do the same
For me

Holding all your cards so close to your chest
I'm pulling back your layers but that mind still won't get undressed
I just wanna take a look for myself and no one else
I just need to know completely
That there's no going back

Poor self righteous
Deserve a better view
Your reliance of me
Watching over you
Narrow minded
Gripped and bonded too
The weak and spineless
Pushed into solitude

Holding all your cards so close to your chest
I'm pulling back your layers but that mind still won't get undressed
I just wanna take a look for myself and no one else
I just need to know completely
That there's no going back

My love
I would do anything
Yeah I would do anything
To make you feel ok
My love
Yeah I would do anything
I would do anything

My love
I would do anything
Yeah I would do anything
To make you feel ok
My love
Yeah I would do anything
I would do anything

My love
I would do anything
Yeah I would do anything
