

Easy man
Take a breath
Have a moment
Steady hand
Heaven sent
But move over
In your own, own time
When your ready
Shoulda known, to draw the line
Go steady

Easy man
Have a think, what you're doing
What's the plan
Another drink
Cut through them
You don't care if they asked for it
Dead and buried
As if they'd ever want your shit
Go steady

I don't think he knows yet
Hasn't been exposed yet
I don't think he knows yet
(Go steady)

That gaslight smile don't suit ya
That shady style gets cheaper
Blatant trust abuser
Twist the knife go deeper

I don't think he knows yet
Hasn't been exposed yet
I don't think he knows yet
(Go steady)

Dug his claws deep in you
He'll break your heart and blame you too

I don't think he knows yet
Hasn't been exposed yet
