

Good For Something

TENDER

How do I, how?
How do I prove myself so worthy?
Cut my shit before you call me out
I'm trying not to rush this, perfectly in touch with Tentatively homing in

Am I not good for something?
Baby I'm yours, I'm all in
But I don't know why
I just roll the dice
If I could give you everything
I can see the pain you're living with
Could you be mine?
I just gotta try

Were we just friends?
Did it ever cross your mind that I'm not fine with it
I'm on the other line but you might as well hang up
I couldn't have been clearer
Desperate to be near her
Wish this was a game of chance

Am I not good for something?
Baby I'm yours, I'm all in
But I don't know why
I just roll the dice
If I could give you everything
I can see the pain you're living with
Could you be mine?
I just gotta try

Took a sip from your red wine
Losing grip isn't my type
I said "Hunny have another line and see how you feel then"
I won't sleep on the weekend
Talking shit with my best friends
I think I know how it ends

Am I not good for something?
Baby I'm yours, I'm all in
But I don't know why
I just roll the dice
If I could give you everything
I can see the pain you're living with
Could you be mine?
I just gotta try

Took a sip from your red wine
Losing grip isn't my type
I said "Hunny have another line and see how you feel then"
I won't sleep on the weekend
Talking shit with my best friends
I think I know how it ends
