

Hypnotised

TENDER

Feet on sullen ground, it's my simple need
Hands tired and feet are bound, I won't let you leave
5000 miles away across the sea
Won't hear me cry at night, you can't come for me
You said, "There's nowhere on Earth I'd rather be
Away from prying eyes and false company."

It comes and goes, will you let me know?
'Cause I feel so hypnotised, I can't describe
The echo flows with space to grow
Yeah, it moves so slow, bathe in the light
You don't define me, me
You don't define me, you don't define me

I'm, I'm not myself today, there's something in the way
It's the distance in between us, tried to forget
Been praying for a miracle but nothing's happened yet
You said, "There's nowhere on Earth I'd rather be
Away from prying eyes and false company."

It comes and goes, will you let me know?
'Cause I feel so hypnotised, I can't describe
The echo flows with space to grow
Yeah, it moves so slow, bathe in the light
You don't define me, me
You don't define me, you don't define me
You don't define me, you don't define me
You don't define me, you don't define me
