

Hey, tried to make your life easier
Hey, don't wanna be hard, no no
We're not out of the woods yet
Got caught in a cold sweat
Not looking down, not looking down

I am volatile
These things take a while
So hold me close again, so hold me close again
I am volatile
Got it set in stone
Thought I'd found the perfect blend
But I tried to depend on you

Oh, it doesn't taste as sweet
When you're tired of letting go
Getting left out in the cold
Baby, oh, it doesn't taste as good
When you're tired of holding on
Looking back at what you've done, lately

Hey, tried to make your life easier
Hey, don't wanna be hard, no no
We're not out of the woods yet
Got caught in a cold sweat
Not looking down, not looking down

I am volatile
These things take a while
So hold me close again, so hold me close again
I am volatile
Got it set in stone
Thought I'd found the perfect blend
But I tried to depend on you

Oh, it doesn't taste as sweet
When you're tired of letting go
Baby, oh, it doesn't taste as good
When you're tired of holding on
Looking back at what you've done

You tell me you want me
You tell me you need me
You're saying you won't leave
You're saying "Believe me"
I've been to this place
I know you're lying to my face, again

Oh, it doesn't taste as sweet
When you're tired of letting go
Baby, oh, it doesn't taste as good
When you're tired of holding on
Looking back at what you've done
