

Through The Mirror

Tennis

How is it you said you were lonely?
Salt in my hair as you hold me
Through the mirror, you and I are falling now

I wear your ring, I am loyal
I wear your ring, I'm impossible
You drag me down into your dreams

How is it you said you were lonely?
Can't stop my teardrops from falling
Through the mirror, you and I are falling now

Now I envision
My indecision
I, I wear your ring, and you will be mine

How is my logic
Careless as the water?
I, I wear your ring, and you will be mine

How is it you said we are only
Living in our heads, as you hold me?
Through the mirror, you and I are falling now

Now that you've said you were lonely
Can't stop my tears as you hold me
Through the mirror, you and I are falling now

Can't stop my tears
Can't stop my tears
Can't stop my tears
Can't stop my tears
