Devotion

Tenth Avenue North

Well, it all comes down to this-
Nothing else to bother me
And no one else around.
I'm searching for Your kiss,
Running back into Your arms,
And facing toward the ground.

With the beating of my heart
And the tears rolling down - (oh yeah)
All I'm looking for now
Is the peace and joy that I once knew

Because it's You -
You are the one
And it's You -
Giving light to the Sun
And it's You -
You are always unto -
Yeah it's You.

Well, I know sometimes it seems
I'm losing track of time with you
And everything's so clear.
Well, like a bird I'm free.
Noticing your love for me
Never far, but near.

So I'm still looking for,
Trying hard not to look back.
I know I'll never get bored
With the love and joy I find in You

Because it's You -
You are the one
And it's You -
Giving light to the Sun
And it's You -
You are always unto -
Yeah it's You.

I know it's You -
You are the one
And it's You -
Giving light to the Sun
And its You -
You are always unto -
Yeah it's You.

Nothing else compares to You.
You are the life You are the truth.
Nothing else compares to You.
Take me back where I once knew.

Nothing else compares to You.
You are the life You are the truth.
Nothing else compares to You.
Take me back where I once knew.

Nothing else compares to You.
You are the life, You are the truth.
Nothing else compares to You.
Take me back where I once knew

It's a song of love
