

Fighting

Tep No

I beg you darling, baby please
Don't walk away, don't take hardest part that grew inside of me
My baby, don't you leave
I'll never find a way, to cope with the remains

But I'm trying, trying to move on, trying
I find you inside out of everyone I meet
And I'm trying, trying to be strong
It was hard to be with you, without you, even harder to move on

We'll find a better way to bleed
So don't turn away from the mistakes you had to see inside of me
My baby, don't you leave
I'll never find a way, to re-frame from who we used to be

But I'm trying, trying to move on
I find you inside out of everyone I greet
And I'm trying, trying to be strong
It was hard to let you go, but without you, even harder to move on

So wake up tomorrow wondering if we'll make it
We'll find him, find him
We're two, three worlds apart, but love will make it
So don't mind him, don't mind him

You're all by yourself, fighting
Thinking of all the special places you'll fit in
Don't buy or sell, crying
I got one room for two if I'm not mistaken
So fly away my friend
Fly away, we fly away
Fly away, we fly away
Fly away, we fly away
