

My Space Friend

Tercer Cielo

Hey welcome to my myspace!

I'm happy that I met you on myspace and now I cant wait to read your comments everyday I never thought I could feel this spot and love this way

I'm happy that I met you on myspace
thanks for that add I'm so glad to have you as my friend
I know would you stuck my mind and make me smile again

I remember that day the fist time I saw your face on that website called myspace and I sent you a friend request saying hello pretty girl

I thought you were just one of those guys who would like to play with my heart
but as time has passed
I realized that you were one of the kind you have become someone special oh girl I I didn't care for that kind of thing but now I cant stand all day serving on you lovely I like when you make an update

I thought you were just one of those guys
who would like to play with my heart
but as time has passed
I realized that you were one of the kind
