

Forbidden Love

Terminal Choice

I can see you there your lying on the grass your body looks so perfect I don't dare to touch your lips so bloody red your eyes they look at me the night is cold and dark why don't you come to me the moon is watching us I know you wait for me your skin is soft and white I can't resist your kiss and we fly into the night I hold you in my arms my dear forever you'll be mine

and we fly into the night
please my love don't shed a tear no reason to cry

[verse 1 repeat]
I smell your deep red blood I think I want you now the rain is falling down wash away my tears

and we fly into the night
please my love don't shed a tear
no reason to cry
