

The saviour

Terminal Choice

one night
he comes down to earth with red white wings and full of hope his mission is to save the world
he don't know
that we won't be saved

and he tries and tries to stop all the wars
he has no chance cause war is what we need he has to watch how we kill each other he can stand it anymore i'm your saviour can't you see how can you live this way please my earthlings come with me there's no use for you to stay i have to take you far away to a better place

i destroy the earth today no chance for the human race

he takes away
all the earthlings
he cleans the earth
from this human fills and then he destroys the planet he blows the earth away we had our chance

but we didn't use it we are not good enough to live
