Cure For The Common Heartache

Terri Clark

This morning I'm aching all over Can't eat, can't sleep, can't rest Oh I need to go see a doctor For this achin down deep in my chest

Is there a cure For the common Heartache An unknown prescription Any loser can take I'd be the first to become addicted If there's a cure For the common heartache

I know right where I got it This sickness that's got me laid up I don't have the strength now to fight it This old condition called love
