

Hope Road

Terrian

I locked the front door
Turned in the keys
No need to hang on
To what I no longer need
That old house is empty
It's a thing of the past
I don't need a rear-view mirror
'Cause I ain't ever lookin' back
No I don't need a rear-view mirror
'Cause I'm not ever lookin' back

I'm packin' my bags
Movin' onto Hope Road
No stopping me now
'Cause I've already sold
He's taken my life
To a whole new zip code
I'm packing my bags
Oh
I'm packing my bags
Packing my bags movin' on

Packing
Packing
Packing
Packing my bags moving

You could bust through those windows
Go ahead and tear down that door
All the chaos that lives here
Ain't my chaos no more
Got a mansion that's paid for
By the blood of my savior
You can post it on the front door
I can see it in my mind
Gonna walk it with my feet
Let 'em all, let 'em all read
You won't find me here no more

I'm packin' my bags
Movin' onto Hope Road
No stopping me now
'Cause I've already sold
He's taken my life
To a whole new zip code
I'm packing my bags oh
I'm packing my bags
Packing my bags moving on

Packing oh
Packing oh
Packing
Packing oh
Packing oh
Packing

Freedom
Just three-blocks away
But it's darkness to light
Darkness to light
Freedom
I'm lifting my eyes to the hope of my life
For the very first time

I'm packin' my bags
I'm packing my bags oh
I'm packing my bags

I am so gone
Tell em' so long
Hope road is calling me calling me home
I am so gone
Tell em' so long
