

Wake Up

Terrian

I made a deal with fear you keep me warm I'll stay here
Been addicted to comfort, and it's not even real
I know complacency it is a silent kill
In all transparency I love the way that it feels, man

Give me a box and I'll stay in it
Deal me the cards and I'll play with 'em
Lord deliver me from my apathy
Tired of living for myself ya know it's killing me, yeah

Help me Lord, I need to wake up, oh yeah
Put that fire under my feet
Fell asleep I need to shake up, oh yeah
Cause I've been settling
Wasted time I gotta make up, oh yeah
I need You to set me free
Help me Lord, I need to wake up, oh yeah
Wake up, wake up, wake up

I've been waiting on God, but He been waiting on me
Complaining that I am blind, but never wanted to see
I give you so many words, they be as vast as the sea
But they return to me void, cause I don't move my feet

Lord, I need reiteration, I've made it complicated
When it's so simple, I need an alteration
Lord, deliver me

Help me Lord, I need to wake up, oh yeah
Put that fire under my feet
Fell asleep I need to shake up, oh yeah
Cause I've been settling
Wasted time I gotta make up, oh yeah
I need You to set me free
Help me Lord, I need to wake up, oh yeah
Wake up, wake up, wake up

Rise and shine, give me that high five, high five
God, with You it's gone be alright, alright
We can take it one step at a time, at a time
But first I gotta wake up
Rise and shine, give me that high five, high five
God, with You it's gone be alright, alright
We can take it one step at a time, at a time
But first I gotta wake up

Help me Lord, I need to wake up, oh yeah
Put that fire under my feet
Fell asleep I need to shake up, oh yeah
Cause I've been settling
Wasted time I gotta make up, oh yeah
I need You to set me free
Help me Lord, I need to wake up, oh yeah
Wake up, wake up, wake up
