

You're like the closest friend that I don't know anymore
Getting closer and closer and closer and closer and closing doors

And I'm up in the middle of the night
Said I'm living my life just tryna figure what else is there

How you stopped and you start and you waited
I don't know and I don't care
The longer that we go, farther that we grow, the more we find
We're in over and over and over and over and over time
The past is overrated and you hate it
But you focus there, you focus there
But you stopped and you start and you waited
I don't know and I don't care

You picture me alone, leave me alone again
I don't think that you can do it, but do it on your own, my friend
As I'm changing and you know it
But you don't know and this isn't fair
I don't know and I don't care

What you mean I lost?
I knew how I felt long before
You showed up and I don't know what's so new
Didn't even notice it, I don't know and I don't care

Here we are, here we are where we stand
Now it's time, now it's time we take a chance
How, how could I be afraid of what isn't there?
Is there something I should be afraid of?
I don't know and I don't care
Now it's time to show what you're made of, yeah
