

Loved By You

Terror Jr

I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna let you in my room
We could talk about the stars and moon
But I don't need to be, need to be

Cross my heart and hope to die
Tell me all those pretty lies
'Cause real life don't feel that nice
Maybe this is paradise

Ooh, I don't wanna know
Ooh, if it's real
Ooh, will you follow where I go?
I gotta know, I've gotta know

I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna let you in my room
We could talk about the stars and moon
But I don't need to be loved by you
And I can tell that you act so cool
To get away from a world so cruel
And I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna be loved by you

But I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna be loved by you

Baby, tell me what I need
Who gon' save me from myself? (Oh, oh, oh)
Love is always out of reach
Got my heart up on the shelf
Reach fuck give me some help

Ooh, I don't wanna know
Ooh, if it's real
Ooh, will you follow where I go?
I gotta know, I've gotta know

I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna let you in my room
We could talk about the stars and moon
But I don't need to be loved by you
And I can tell that you act so cool
To get away from a world so cruel
And I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna be loved by you

But I don't need to be loved by you
But I wanna be loved by you
