

Set In Stone

Terror Jr

When I first saw your face that night
I thought I was ready
Like if I could just get you in my life
And we could talk heavy

But when I'm underneath the covers
I feel the shadows growing underneath my body
Back to where I started, headed to the bottom
Reaching for your body

I don't wanna feel this way forever
I don't wanna feel so far away
I don't wanna feel this way forever
I don't wanna feel so far away

'Cause we ain't set in stone (we ain't set in stone)
No, we ain't set in stone

I'm looking at problems in my mind
They're made out of nothing
And I always shake them off in time
But I'm still left with the feeling, oh

But when I'm underneath the covers
I feel the shadows growing underneath my body
Back to where I started, headed to the bottom
Reaching for your body

I don't wanna feel this way forever
I don't wanna feel so far away
I don't wanna feel this way forever
I don't wanna feel so far away

'Cause we ain't set in stone (we ain't set in stone)
No, we ain't set in stone

I don't wanna feel this way forever
I don't wanna feel so far away
I don't wanna feel this way forever
I don't wanna feel so

'Cause we ain't set in stone (we ain't set in stone)
No, we ain't set in stone

You always told me that
What is then will only start again
And we're all blinded by the same sun
No, we ain't set in stone
I don't wanna feel so far away
