

Wait

Terror Jr

Tuesday night, hit me up
You were mapping through my area
You're my thirst, hold me up
Get in my bed and let me bury you
Friday night, going deep
Going through a farm, counting sheep
I'm not really big on weed
But for you I'm planting trees

So take my number, take me over
Take our secrets to the grave
I could lose you any second
So why would I wait?
Always thought I was the savior
You know I needed to be saved
I could lose you any second
So why would I wait?

If I could lose you any day
Then why, why would I wait?
And I, I won't leave this up to fate
So why, why would I wait?

Monday night, out to breakfast
No tears in my iced tea
I know I should be sick of you
But I'm praying that you don't leave

So take my number, take me over
Take our secrets to the grave
I could lose you any second
So why would I wait?
Always thought I was the savior
You know I needed to be saved
I could lose you any second
So why would I wait?

If I could lose you any day
Then why, why would I wait?
I, I won't leave us up to fate
So why, why would I wait?

Into my head now
Bad blood bleeding out
So why, why would I wait?
Almost gave up, how?
Couldn't let you pass me now
So why, why would I wait?
