

Behind the Bars

Terror

If I'm to put it back together
I have to tear it all apart
If I'm to get it on the level
I must be ready
Because change is coming hard
If I'm to live like this forever
A day late and a mile too far
I have to get it on the level
I won't spend my whole life in the dark

Desperate need of change
With no peace in my heart
In broken pieces
I fall apart
I'm still suffering
A life of pain from the start
Still locked away
Behind the bars

Don't tell me to compromise
I'll play it my way till the very end
A world of chaos behind my eyes
Too much to take
Too much to comprehend

Desperate need of change
With no peace in my heart
In broken pieces
I fall apart
I'm still suffering
A life of pain from the start
Still locked away
Behind the bars
Behind the bars
Behind the bars
Behind the bars

Wasting all my energy
It's taken over me
Suffocating mentally
With no regards
Behind the bars

Wasting all my energy
It's taken over me
Suffocating mentally
This mind of scars
Behind the bars
