

Boundless Contempt

Terror

Time will show the damage you covered
How low you went to deepen the wound
A fatal pressure pushes me under
This boundless contempt, forced too

Blind rage breaks through
A boundless contempt for you
My rage, consumes
A boundless contempt for you

This damage state my thoughts can't recover
Now my whole life a demon inside
The purest hate, there's never been another
Until my last breath I will fight

Blind rage breaks through
A boundless contempt for you
My rage, consumes
A boundless contempt for you

Boundless contempt
Boundless contempt

Driven by vengeance to the bitter end
Suffer the sentence born from my revenge

Driven by vengeance to the bitter end (Boundless contempt)
Suffer the sentence born from my revenge (Boundless contempt)
Driven by vengeance to the bitter end (Boundless contempt)
A fucking disgrace to everything this ever meant
It never ends

Now...
Now, suffer the sentence

It never ends
