

Prepare for the Worst

Terror

Don't you ask for help
'Cause all you have is your fucking self
So tell me how to survive
When all I love just fucking dies

And all you know is pain
Everything you lost, you didn't need
Keep telling myself it's gonna be okay
You wanna fuck up my life but it's too late

So I prepare for the worst
Embrace the pain you can't put into words
No one cares if you hurt
So I'll prepare for the worst

For the worst
For the worst

No way to twist the facts
It's never coming back
Praying for peace is dead
The end of innocence

This world has gone insane
Twisting your fucking brain
No one cares if you hurt
So I'll prepare for the worst
