

Unashamed

Terror

Unashamed of the choices I've made
Unashamed among the two-faced
Unashamed, the conviction remains
Proud to be who I am, I refuse, I'm unashamed

Shut me out 'cause I don't see what you see
Made to feel I don't deserve anything
You wanna criticize, I won't apologize
I won't concede to what you want me to be

Say what you wanna say
Dismissed in infamy
The conviction remains
Unashamed

Those days still mean everything to me
I won't feel guilty you no longer believe
I'm sick to say that I once looked up to you
I think of all that you've lost, not fucking sorry for you

Say what you wanna say
Dismissed in infamy
The conviction remains
Unashamed

I believed, I believed in those days
Those days of brotherhood
Make no mistake, it was no passing phase
The conviction remains unashamed

I believe, I believe in these days
These days of brotherhood
Make no mistake, it was no passing phase
The conviction remains unashamed

I believe, still believe in these days
Of brother and sisterhood
Make no mistake, it was no passing phase
The conviction remains unashamed
