

Alone

Terrorvision

I wanna get myself alone so I can talk to me,
And warn me off the creeps and the sluts and the whores and the cocaine bores,
If we talk in all seriousness, If we're honest and true to our word,
If we listen to one another then we shouldn't have scream and s hout to be heard,

And yet you,
You're gonna do the things the things you do,
You've got this different point of view now yeah,
It's never been so easy for me,

I wanna get myself back home, so I can think and be,
Whatever that I choose, I decide that I need cos' it's up to me

And yet you,
You're gonna do the things the things you do,
You've got this different point of view now yeah,
It's never been so easy for me,
I can't see,
Waiting for the sun,

Each and everyone,
Cos' with the light we'll see,
How easy it can be,

And yet you,
You're gonna do the things the things you do,
You've got this different point of view now yeah,
It's never been so easy for me,
I can't see,

And yet you,
You're gonna do the things the things you do,
You've got this different point of view now yeah,
It's never been so easy for me,

And yet you,
You're gonna do the things the things you do,
You've got this different point of view now yeah,
It's never been so easy for me,
I can't see.
