Tea Dance

Terrorvision

Well maybe you're right
It's just I don't like
All the things you're making me hear
Christ, I knew it was you
You still created that mood
My heart still sank after all these years

Oh yeah
I'm sorry
I should have known

Where are you set
Oh yeah, there's two places set
I hope we can't afford to take times
There's a lot to be said
Did you know they sold our favourite wines

Oh yeah
I'm sorry
I should have known

(Whistling)

Well me, yeah I got hitched
And yeah, we are still friends
I don't see her often still
I get the kids at weekends

So now it's time that I left
I suppose that its best
Maybe we could call it a date
But no it looks like he's here
So it's goodbye my dear
Seems we made a terrible mistake

Oh yeah
I'm sorry
I should have known

Oh yeah
I'm sorry
I should have known

Oh yeah
I'm sorry
I know
