

Gone To Texas

Terry Allen

Hey I don't need no chickenshit business man tellin' me what to do Even if you ain't got no business same thing goes for you I don't need no sweet faced woman goin sour mouthed on me If I work like a dog night an day to give her a hundred time more'n she needs

Gone to Texas baby
Gone to Texas tonight
Gone to Texas baby
All I need is the ride
You say it ain't no different'n
Any other place to go Well you ain't been with me
Or you'd already know It's just the feel of the deal
from behind the wheel That'll make me need to go

Well I don't need no stinky Pinky sing to me about the common man Some cowboy fake who think all it takes is a hat on his head and a Grammy in his hand An I don't need no weekend warrior out there protectin me If he's dumb with a gun as he is with his tongue when he's shootin off on TV

Gone to Texas baby
Gone to Texas tonight
Gone to Texas baby
All I need is the ride
You say it ain't no different'n
Any other place to go
Well you must be a yankee Or your just kinda slow...cause
It's just the feel of the deal
from behind the wheel
Makes you need these Texas roads

Well I don't need no dime a dozen ah New Age way to live An I don't need no two bit preacher condemn me because I don't give him my money money money money money money money I don't need no Soldier Boy fightin no war for me
You can burn the flag an melt the statue gonna live my liberties...cause

I'mGone to Texas baby Might go straight on to the moon
Gone to Texas baby
Can't get enough too soon Say Texas ain't no different'n

Goin' straight to Hell can be Hey you must be a critic Are you too blind to see...
It's just the feel of the deal
from behind the wheel
Gonna heel the hell out of me

Gone to Texas baby
Gone to Texas tonight
Gone to Texas baby
All I need is the ride
