

Me And You

Terry Jacks

I heard somebody say
That you would soon be leaving
Because you couldn't take it any more
But I think kinda know
By the ways the breeze been going
And I been putting flowers round the door

And I had always told you
That I would always love you
And I would always faithfully be true
Something made it happen
Hard to find a reason
The only one to blame is me and you

Now I had always told you
That I would always love you
And I would always faithfully be true
Something made it happen
Hard to find a reason
The only one to blame is me and you
