

Only One

Terry Scott Taylor

You take what you need, my baby
Still it's not enough
You've broken so many hearts now
Now you're not untouched
Holding your lovers, tell me
Was it in their eyes?
They're just a memory fading
You must realize

That there is only one
Only one
(One who can save you)
Only one
Only one
(Never forsake you)

The scent of a flower, baby
That you never see
Girl, there's a voice that's calling
It's more than a dream
Diamonds appear like glitter
You hold them in your hands
But like all of your possessions

They'll soon turn to sand

'Cause there is only one
Only one
(One who can save you)
Only one
Only one
(Never forsake you)

Diamonds appear like glitter
You hold them in your hands
But like all of your possessions
They'll soon turn to sand

There is only one
Only one
(One who can save you)
Only one
Only one
(Never forsake you)
Only one
Only one
(One who can save you)
Only one
Only one
(Never forsake you)
Only one
Only one
(One who can save you)
Only one
