

Paraffin

Tesla Boy

I'm telling you
What's going on
I used no worry
About you so long

And now you see
My stillness girl
I'm on the carpet
With burning coal

How did you find
This simple role
Where I surrender
And lose control

You're telling me
What should I do
Just like a maniac
I follow you

Don't know why
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
Yeah!

Don't know why
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
Yeah!

And now I stand
Like a shoeshine boy

And you can move me
Just like a toy

The only thing
You can't find out
Who is the master?
Who's the servant?

Don't know why
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
Yeah!

Don't know why
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
Yeah!

Don't know why
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
Yeah!
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
But this pain has hurt me so sweet
Don't know why
Don't know why
