

Again, Again

Tessa Violet

A little cottage on a cliff
You hold my hands you kiss my lips
I know you have me, and we are happy

And in your arms I make a home
And all at once it's like I know
But I can see how it's just a dream now

You brush me off like it's not by design
And I do what I can to draw the line

But oh, when I close my eyes
You're smiling at me
In the kitchen light
You try and catch me
And it feels so right
Because you have me
And we are happy
Again again again again again again

But we're just two ships passing in the night
And you were turning left when I was right

What a cruel thing to do
To hold your cards, to twist the truth
Guess I misjudged you, but, god, I loved you

I tried to give you what you need
I put my heart out on my sleeve
Put it to rest now, it's for the best now

You brush me off like so much fallen snow
And I know that it's time to let it go

But oh, when I close my eyes
You're smiling at me
In the kitchen light
You try and catch me
And it feels so right
Because you have me
And we are happy
Again again again again again again

In the darkest hour
I'd be your hero
Using all my power
To help and heal
And it feels so right
Because you have me
And we are happy
Again again again again again again

Falling in again, falling in again again again again again

In our winter coats
And in inside jokes
In the moments when I turn to touch your face

You give me all your love
And there's no stopping us
And we watch as everything falls into place

But that's not how our story intertwines
And I guess you're allowed to change your mind

But oh when I close my eyes
You're standing with me
You go to kiss me
Because you have me
And we are happy
Again again again again again again

In the darkest hour
Using all my power
To help and heal
And it feels so right
Because you have me
And we are happy
Again again again again again again

Falling in again, falling in again again again again again
Falling in again, falling in again again again again again

A little cottage on a cliff
You hold my my hands you kiss my lips
I know you have me, and we are happy
