

Breakdown

Tessa Violet

I cried in line waiting for my turn
And I lied to my mom, I guess I never learn
And every day is the same, feel like I'm going insane
The only friend I have is my phone
I hate (I hate) the taste (The taste) of being all alone

So throw your hands up if you're feeling it too
We're getting banged up, tryna run from the truth
For all the kicking and screaming and fighting the feeling of working it through
Singing hey-o (Hey-o-o-o)
I need your hands now if you're ready to shout
I'm going batshit, and I'm burning it down
For all the kicking and screaming and fighting the feeling of working it through
Singing hey-o, hey-o-o-o

I am (I am) the force (The force) of sixty thousand leagues
To know (To know) my voice (My voice) is to know the power in me
And there's a thirst in my blood, and there's a fire in my love
No high or low do I lack (I lack)
I went (I went) to hell (To hell), but now I'm coming back

So throw your hands up if you're feeling it too
We're getting banged up, tryna run from the truth
For all the kicking and screaming and fighting the feeling of working it through
Singing hey-o, hey-o-o-o
I need your hands now if you're ready to shout
I'm going batshit, and I'm burning it down
For all the kicking and screaming and fighting the feeling of working it through
Singing hey-o, hey-o-o-o

I'm gonna have a breakdown
I'm gonna have a breakdown

I'm gonna have a breakdown, breakdown
So keep, keep on holding me close
I'm gonna have a breakdown, breakdown
So keep, keep on letting me go

I need your hands
So throw your hands up if you're feeling it too
We're getting banged up, tryna run from the truth (Run from the truth)
For all the kicking and screaming and fighting the feeling of working it through
Singing hey-o, hey-o-o-o
Give me your hands now if you're ready to shout (If you're ready to shout)
I'm going batshit, and I'm burning it down (I'm burning it down)
For all the kicking and screaming and fighting the feeling of working it through
Singing hey-o, hey-o-o-o

I'm gonna have a breakdown, breakdown
So keep, keep on holding me close
I'm gonna have a breakdown, breakdown

So keep, keep on letting me go
I'm gonna have a breakdown
