

Burn

Tessa Violet

Oh, I guess that you thought I'd be happy to have you back
You must think that you're cute coming out of a magic act
But you got nothing to sell and I'm not under your spell I'm we ll so here just so we're clear

Baby, I'd rather burn (baby I'd rather burn)
Before I'd have you return (have you return)
You can fall to your knees (you can fall to your knees)
Begging crying but please (crying but please)

Leave your flowers at the door I can't take any more
I'm so bored by sorries so here in case you misheard
Baby I'd rather burn

You can talk all you want but your words don't mean anything
I was broken apart now I don't bow to any king Cause I'm a powerful queen and I mean to be heard my word is he re
And just so we're clear

Baby, I'd rather burn (baby I'd rather burn)
Before I'd have you return (have you return)
You can fall to your knees (you can fall to your knees)
Begging crying but please (crying but please)

Leave your flowers at the door I can't take any more
I'm so bored by sorries so in case you misheard
Baby I'd rather burn, oh I'd rather burn (ooh)
I just need you to hear so Ima try to be clear Baby I'd rather

I used to be broken down then I found I don't need to please yo u so here just so we're clear

Baby, I'd rather burn
Before I'd have you return
You can fall to your knees (you can fall to your knees)
Begging crying but please (crying but please)

Leave your flowers at the door I can't take any more
I'm so bored by sorries so in case you misheard
Baby I'd rather burn
