

You are, you are
My little piece of heaven
You are, you are
My lucky number seven
And you, you, you
You give me wings to fly

You are, you are
My anchor when I'm drifting
You are, you are
My rescue when I'm sinking
And you, you, you
You make me come alive

Cause every little thing that you do
Every little thing that you say
You light me up like a moon
You give me strength to be brave
Only you can make me feel this way

We'll be running 'til the sun burns, sun burns out
I will love you 'til the stars come, stars come down
Oh, you are my (eh, eh, eh)
You are my (eh, eh, eh)
Lifeline

My heart's on my sleeve
And I wear it proudly
For you to see
The magic that's surrounding you, you, you
You make me come alive

Cause every little ting that you do
Every little thing that you say
You light me up like a moon
You give me strength to be brave
Only you can make me feel this way

We'll be running 'til the sun burns, sun burns out
I will love you 'til the stars come, stars come down
Oh, you are my (eh, eh, eh)
You are my (eh, eh, eh)
Lifeline

We'll be running
We'll be running
We'll be running
We'll be running
We'll be running
We'll be running
