

Witch Hunt

Testament

So redundant and viciously obscene
How the rhetoric has come into the light
All involved, to hold accountability
For all of those who been a disgrace
The vile content that roams across the universe
But never seems to play by the rules
Interrogation falsely accused
This committee is all made up of fools

Execution, their authority
Investigating all those dirty deeds
Insinuating stealing liberties
Again, and again

Subjugation and no end in sight
As it turns into a one-sided fight
The moral compass, the ethics involved
Seems to be directed like a firing squad

Execution, their authority
Investigating all those dirty deeds
Insinuating stealing liberties
Again, and again

They are so sadistic
In this forsaken town
As the power's shifting
With a smiling frown
See the witches burn
In his witch hunters crown

Burn and drown
All the witches are hunted down
Burn and drown
All the witches are hunted down
