

Cold

Tetrarch

Something telling me I need to leave this situation
But what's the point
I'm in a place of my own doing that I can't crawl from
And I don't even think I would

Can't believe I've ignored the signs I've seen and the hate
It beats me down and it's kinda messed up
Everything it's done to me

Cold
Twisted
I'm unsure and insecure
But now I've learned
And I won't
Break myself for anyone

Break

Seems like I am always living in confrontation
And it's draining me
Try not to let this all affect me but it haunts me still
And it's left me here to feel

Cold
Twisted
I'm unsure and insecure
But now I've learned
And I won't
Break myself for anyone

Cold
Twisted
I'm unsure and insecure
But now I've learned
And I won't
Break myself for anyone

Cold
Twisted
I'm unsure and insecure
But now I've learned
And I won't
Break myself for anyone

Unsure and insecure
Beats me down and it's kinda messed up
Won't break myself for anyone
Unsure and insecure
Beats me down and it's kinda messed up
Won't break myself for anyone
