

Final Words

Tetrarch

You fucked up you played me

You clouded everything
And in the end I've lost my mind
It's so frustrating
When all I need is you
Your're like a noose around my neck
That I can't break
So drop this shit
And end this suffering

These are my words to you
These are my words to you

I'm what you wanted
I'll be here standing
When you fall to your knees
I'll hear your voice
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone

The time is passing
And still the same excuse from you
Deny what you're feeling
I see through you
Open your eyes
Live your life regretting
Open your eyes
You fucked up you played me

Torture me with every indecision
Hear these words
It's the last time I'll tell ya

I'm what you wanted
I'll be here standing
When you fall to your knees
I'll hear your voice
You'll never be alone
You'll never be alone

I'm what you wanted
I'll be here standing
I'll hear your voice
You'll never be alone

I'm what you wanted
I'm what you need
I'll be here standing
You're on your knees
I'll hear your voice
Crawling back to me

I'm what you wanted
I'll be here standing
I'll hear your voice

You'll never be alone
