

Pushed Down

Tetrarch

There are two paths you can take
You can aim to please and satisfy
And keep lying to yourself
Or you can step into the darkness
Look around you it is everywhere
And embrace your freak I'll lead you there

To all my psychos
The untouchables
You have been pushed down
And you're lost
Stuck In the same situations
Just break away with me
We are the psychos
The untouchables
We won't be written off
We'll be here standing
So take all your agitation
And just break away
Just break away with me

It's so easy to give in
To lose some of yourself
Being trapped by someone else
Am I making myself clear
Cause it seems like you've been haunted
By a life you never wanted

To all my psychos
The untouchables
You have been pushed down
And you're so lost
Stuck In the same situations
Just break away with me
We are the psychos
The untouchables
We won't be written off
We'll be here standing
So take all your agitation
And just break away
Just break away with me

Are you tired of running
Release your fears with me

To all my psychos
The untouchables
You have been pushed down
And you're so lost
Stuck In the same situations
We are the psychos
The untouchables
So take all your agitation
And just break away with me

We are the psychos
