

Set To Flames

Tetrarch

Struggle

You cry for help but no one listens to you

Broken

You live alone to cry, alone to die

You've left the world you've fucked your mind

Leave us now, don't look behind

Behind the mask, a lonely soul

They're out to get you

All you know

Can you feel the burden overcoming?

Beat me around

You've held me captive

Oh, I'm breaking down, I'm breaking down

I feel like I've been set to flames

My body aches

Perceptions misery

You set my world to flames

Liar

You twist the truth, it always seems to suit you

Fire

The bridges burning down, it's your destruction

Seal our coffin, is this what you wanted?

Is this what you wanted?

Your denial, all your words lay idle

Can you feel the burden overcoming?

See the world crumbling around you

Beat me around

You've held me captive

Oh, I'm breaking down, I'm breaking down

I feel like I've been set to flames

My body aches

Perceptions misery

You set my world to

Set my world ablaze

Who's to blame?

Or am I just insane?

My word's collapsing

And I can't be saved

Who's to blame?

Or am I just insane?

On my own

I only live my way

Beat me around

You've held me captive

Oh, I'm breaking down, I'm breaking down

I feel like I've been set to flames

My body aches

Perceptions misery

Beat me around

You've held me captive
Oh, I'm breaking down, I'm breaking down
I feel like I've been set to flames
My body aches
Perceptions misery
You set my world to flames
