

The Only Thing I've Got

Tetrarch

It's a late night, sitting here alone
I feel like a stranger in my home
I have to tell myself to breathe
I can't sleep, I'm overthinking all
The things that I cannot control
I need to get ahold of myself

I can't wait to pull myself from my sorrow
It's digging into me
'Cause when I run, it follows
And gets the best of me
I peel myself open, push out what I'm not
Looking for tomorrow's
The only thing I've got

I'm out, walking on my own
Moonlight is looking kinda dull
I wish for this haze to leave
If I wake up, maybe I can find
A way to ease what's on my mind
But I'm spinning, I'm spinning, I'm spinning

I can't wait to pull myself from my sorrow
It's digging into me
'Cause when I run, it follows
And gets the best of me
I peel myself open, push out what I'm not
Looking for tomorrow's
The only thing I've got

I bend, but I don't break
I bend, but I don't break
I won't break, I won't break, I won't break
I bend, but I don't break
I won't break, I won't break (I won't break, I won't break)

I can't wait to pull myself from my sorrow
It's digging into me
'Cause when I run, it follows
And gets the best of me
I peel myself open, push out what I'm not
I'm looking for tomorrow

I can't wait to pull myself from my sorrow
It's digging into me
'Cause when I run, it follows
And gets the best of me
I peel myself open, push out what I'm not
Looking for tomorrow's
The only thing I've got

I won't break, I won't break, I won't break
The only thing I've got
I won't break, I won't break, I won't break
The only thing I've got
I peel myself open, push out what I'm not
Looking for tomorrow's

The only thing I've got
I won't break, I won't break, I won't break
The only thing I've got
I won't break, I won't break, I won't break
The only thing I've got
