

Torn Apart

Tetrarch

I'm so sorry, I know it's getting overwhelming
All regrets, the things I change
Racing through my head
Each step up, I come crashing down
Fall to earth, face in the ground
I'm so stressed out, and I'm burnt out, I can't fix myself

I'm on the edge again
Far away from who I am
Bring me back

Pull me from this cell
Hated now, intoxicated, reaching out
(Heal me, help me)
You're not around, I pushed away, I'm left here by myself

I'm on the edge again
Far away from who I am
Bring me back
Pull me from this cell

I'm afraid that I'm gone, I've been torn apart
Tried to stitch me up
But you know, you will find me in the flames

I'm on the edge again
Far away from who I am
Bring me back
Pull me from this cell

I'm on the edge again
This is where my life will end
Walk away
Leave me in this cell
