

Back from Hell

Texas Hippie Coalition

Saddle up

Lo ho, lo ho and behold
You sign your name on the dotted line and the devil owns your soul
Well, well, look who's back from hell
And if you just can't tell, well I don't feel so well
Well, hell, hell

Lo ho, lo ho and behold
You sign your name on the dotted line and the devil owns your soul
Well, well, look who's back from hell
And if you just can't tell, well I don't feel so well
Well, hell, hell

I've been sent to tell you something
Yeah brother, hell is coming
Yes, I've been sent to tell you something
Yeah brother, hell is coming
Hell is coming

Lo ho, lo ho and behold
You sign your name on the dotted line and the devil owns your soul
Well, well, look who's back from hell
If you just can't tell, well I don't feel so well
Well, hell, hell

I've been sent to tell you something
Yeah brother, hell is coming
Yes, I've been sent to tell you something
Yeah brother, hell is coming
