

Dressed for War

Texas in July

One last time
We will stand
At the foot
Of the cross
Where he made
That last sacrifice
For you and I
You and I

No, they will not take me alive
For in this battle I will fight
This is the turning point of Everything
I'll stand my ground for Him

(For we are dressed for war)

And I'll always hold
That promise to you
That I made that one day

And I'll always hold
That promise to you
That I made that day

I'll stand true as I am for you
They'll never know
For this devil strains

Break these chains for I am not a sinner

This is murder! Why can't you hear me clear? (6x)
