

Dark Fire

Texas

So my long black hair
It hides me from the truth
I should have really left you
When I was in my youth

I can hear you from afar
As you stumble from the bar
And I know that I'm just a fool over you
Yeah, I know that I'm just a fool for you

I think you are the reason
That I can't move on
While you were everything that made me
Feel so strong

And, yes, I would be a liar
Yes, you're my one desire
And I know that I'm just a fool over you
Yeah, I know that I'm just a fool for you

And, yes, I would be a liar
Yes, you're my one desire
And I know that I'm just a fool over you
Yeah, I know that I'm just a fool for you
