Sound of My Voice

Texas

I wanna see your face
I wanna tell it to everyone
I wanna have the choice
I wanna do what has not be done
There is no point
Trying to scream aloud
It's all been said
The song of a dying crowd

I hear the sound of my voice and it's full of regret
Saying I should remember but I'd rather forget
I know, I know, I know
There is nobody listening

I wanna leave this place
I wanna turn my back and run
I wanna start again
I wanna really become someone
There is no point
They're all gonna let you down
In your head
When there is nobody else around

I hear the sound of my voice and it's full of regret
Saying I should remember but I'd rather forget
I know, I know, I know
There is nobody listening

I wanna tell you I'm sorry, it'll work out someday
But the truth is a lie and it can go either way
I know, I know, I know
There is nobody listening

I hear the sound of my voice and it's full of regret
Saying I should remember but I'd rather forget
I know, I know, I know
There is nobody listening

I wanna tell you I'm sorry, it'll work out someday
But the truth is a lie and it can go either way
I know, I know, I know
There is nobody listening
