

Unbelievable

Texas

I must leave now
Take what I need now
Didn't think it would last
Or did you?
Wishes I'm meant to keep
You gotta grab 'em fast
To reach the unbelievable
Makes no sense at all
Don't know what to say
Cried so many times
Just don't wanna stay
Love slipped through my hands
Now I see my chance
To reach the unbelievable

Over my head
Over my heart
Over my world
You're pulling me apart

Life can only reach so far
I should've known you'd break my heart
You're pulling me apart
You're pulling me apart

Could I have loved you more?
I wasn't that unkind
Too much going on
You weren't on my mind
You are all I know
But I gotta let you go
To reach the unbelievable

Over my head
Over my heart
Over my world
You're pulling me apart

Life can only reach so far
I should've known you'd break my heart
You're pulling me apart
You're pulling me apart

No lesson too late to relearn
No future too late to return
And all the lights are coming out
And I see clearly now

Yeah, I see clearly now

Over my head
Over my heart
Over my world

Life can only reach so far

You're pulling me apart

Life can only reach so far
