

Fire Girl

Teyana Taylor

I said it's up, so it's up
Gun in my hand
Moved on, not giving a damn
Face card, not giving a fuck
I'm too fine to be stressed out
Keep my head above the water
Can't be drowning in your bullshit
Why would I whine when I can whine down?
Why would I look if I don't wanna find out?
Emotionally, I'm signed out
Bridges getting burned, but you live and you learn
This time it's my turn
Fuck a nigga, let it burn

It's cold outside, but inside I'm on fire
Fire girl for hire
But you can never burn my soul, nigga
It's cold outside, but inside I'm on fire

Revenge has been my get back lately
Does that mean I'm crazy?
Am I wrong for choosing violence?
Am I wrong for breaking windows?
Slashing tires, fucking off fire hydrants
I done reached my boiling point so
Don't ask me what's the point
Laid out of concrete
See them eyes that are mine
Thinking I'm playing, I'm not
Think that I'm dangerous, I am
And I'm on forgiveness
Yeah, demons, I had to witness
I fight with no resistance
Fuck you and your existence

It's cold outside, but inside I'm on fire
Fire girl for hire
But you can never burn my soul
But inside I'm on fire
I'm hot, nigga, you triggered, all facts
But you can never burn my soul, yeah
It's cold outside
But you can never burn my soul

And I know that got you down
I know that got you down
I bet you're sorry now
Don't be sorry now, oh no
Yeah
Don't be sorry now, no
It's on you
It's on you, it's on you, it's on you
And I know they got you down
Know they got you down
