

Between The Lines

TGT

What you say girl, what you say girl?
What you say?
What you say girl, what you say girl?
You get fade

Know I'm not a mind reader
But I'm guessing the question.
Why with your mouth say no
But your eyes say yes, I get it.

You wanna chase baby
But we two girl over again
Feeling the space bring your body next to mine

Don't wanna read between the lines baby
Why don't you let all tonight, see it in your eyes?
Thinking is a sign baby, uhh?
How I won't judge you?
It will be the best
Little be the bad
See how good it is
Feel all in your back girl.
Uh don't want 'em on
Forget it for his [?] ain't got no time.
Read between the lines.

Finally got the lines down baby
And you're playing round baby
You're something oh
Girl you cannot from me,
I can see it through them jeans I'm trippin, ohh
Just give me the green light babe
But we too damn over the game,
And I can't wait bring your body next to mine.

Ohh, don't be going back baby
'cause you only be cheating yourself
'cause I know what it is, just come out and say

I don't wanna guess
I don't want no more clues
Let's having this business
Like we know it's [?]
Say what you need, help to please
So just let me know, ohh.
