

Let Go

Thaiboy Digital

I can't let go of old times
I wanna let go, guess what's on my mind

She's so, oh
She's so fine

She's so fine and I'm so handsome
She want me to go away with no ransom
When she looked into my eye it wasn't random
She knew it was the type of love she couldn't handle
Please don't take a hit you gon' pass out
Thaiboy goon I got the swag and I'm dabbed out
Playin' with me you needed me to tap out
When I lose a key young thaiboy buy a new house
SG, Thaiboy

I can't let go of old times
I wanna let go, guess what's on my mind
I can't let go of old times
I wanna let go, guess what's on my mind

Gotta get the bands up, I gotta get the bands up
Get the bands up, noone understand us
