

Prologue... A Faint Applause

Thank You Scientist

I don't know how I should begin this conversation
Or if my words will fall upon deaf ears, and not sink in
We float along
Don't hesitate
You've come too far
To end here at the start

Moving along
Singing a song
I don't even know the words to
I had 'em right here
But you threw them all away

Moving along
Singing a song
It might be a little cliché
I had 'em right here
But I don't know what to say

Hey--ey-ee-ey--ey-ee-ey--ey-ey-ey
Moving along
Singing a song
Hey--ey-ee-ey--ey-ee-ey--ey-ey-ey
Moving along
Singing a song

For me
Oh-oo-oh--oh-oo-oh--oh-oooh
For me
