

To Keep Me

that dog.

It's time to shut off
It's time to turn down
It's time to get lost
I must turn me around

To lessen the pain
To broaden the truth
To dispose of no gain
I haven't the proof

To keep me from falling back
To keep me from letting go
To keep me from holding onto myself

The era has ended
The time has come
It will be so splendid
We've only just begun

To keep me from falling back
To keep me of letting go
To teach me from holding onto myself
